1. Why does Kris Kringle replace the Macy's Santa in the Thanksgiving Parade? - The first one was drunk.
2. What is Susan's mother's name? - Doris Walker
3. What language does Santa speak to the little girl who was adopted and didn't speak English? - Dutch
4. The Vice President under John Quincy Adams was John C. Calhoun. Kris Kringle incorrectly identifies another man, the Vice President under James Monroe. Who was it? - Daniel D Tompkins. John C. Calhoun was VP for all four years of Adam's presidency (1825-1829). Tompkins served under James Monroe from 1817-1825 (both of Monroe's terms). Tompkins was the last one to serve two terms until Woodrow Wilson. The confusion probably stems from the fact that Adams was the 6th President, and Daniel D. Tompkins was the 6th Vice President. But it was not corrected in the movie.
5. Mr Gailey, Kris Kringle's lawyer and roommate, wants to buy a house. What style of home does he want? - A Colonial or a Cape Cod style.
6. Santa sleeps with his whiskers outside the covers. Why does he say he does this? - Cold air makes them grow
7. Kris tries to help Susan with her imagination. What animal does he teach her how to be when the other kids play zoo? - A monkey
8. Susan writes Santa a letter to cheer him up. Where does she send the letter? - New York County Courthouse - Extra Credit for "Center and Pearl Streets"
9. What does the district attorney's son, Tommy, want for Christmas? - A real, official football helmet
10. How many sacks of letters are brought into court during the hearing for Santa? - 21
11. What gift does Kris Kringle buy for Dr Pierce, the doctor at the Brooks Home for the Aged? - An x-ray machine
12. What does Santa leave behind in the house at the end of the movie? - a cane
